Report description:

Sales of jeans were particularly hard hit by the impact of COVID-19. Like most items of apparel, sales of jeans were impeded by the disruption to store openings. While sales of some products shifted online, when it comes to jeans consumers generally prefer to try them on before purchase to ensure a good fit, with sizing varying greatly between different brands and styles. As such, with Thailand lifting its COVID-19 restrictions in 2022 this provided a big boost to sales as consumers returned to...
