Report description:

The pandemic caused a decline in sales for foodservice globally, including in Australia, which negatively impacted sales of starchy roots through foodservice. By contrast, the retail channel experienced an increase in demand, as people were confined at home and spent more time cooking and preparing meals themselves. The increasing retail demand was a positive trend, and helped offset the decline in foodservice both globally and locally. However, in 2022 a slight reversal of this trend is expected...
