Report description:

Although emerging from the worst of the pandemic, 2022 has brought more problems for consumers and producers alike, driving further instability and uncertainty. COVID-19 has continued to have an impact on the global supply chain; therefore, logistics costs have remained high. In addition, the Russian invasion of Ukraine exacerbated this issue, hindering the supply chain further. The war in Ukraine led to the implementation of sanctions against Russia in many countries globally, including Austral...
