Report description:

A fifth wave of COVID-19 affected footfall in stores and sales of apparel accessories in Q1 and Q2 of 2022, driving a return to decline, in line with the performance of overall apparel and footwear. Belts and hats/caps, as wardrobe essentials, observed softer declines compared with most other categories. With the athleisure trend, and more consumers engaging in sports, more people purchased caps and bucket hats to complete their outfit and used them during exercise such as hiking. Also, as the b...
