Report description:

Following two years of negative growth during the outbreak of COVID-19, bookings surged during 2022, as the borders were opened, and lockdowns ceased. Nonetheless, the total value of bookings remained far below pre-COVID-19 levels, although this is partially due to the cautious approach that New Zealand took to lifting restrictions and opening borders, and international borders were not completely open until halfway through 2022.

Euromonitor International's Booking in New Zealand report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest market size data 2017-2021, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new legislative, technology or pricing issues. Background information on disposable income, annual leave and holiday taking habits is also included. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.
