Report description:

The Czech Republic has high acceptance of cannabis, and a long-standing tradition of cannabis cultivation and usage. Cannabis legislation has been an issue in the country since the 1990s, when there was an early attempt at legalisation. Currently medical cannabis is legal and is growing thanks to active interest on the part of the government and patients. CBD products are also legal and growing, widely available through online retailers, pharmacies and drugstores. Recreational cannabis, however,...
