Report description:

In contrast to womenswear and menswear, childrenswear in Hungary showed an improved performance in terms of total volume sales growth in 2022. Demand for this type of apparel was not as negatively affected by the price hikes and fall in purchasing power that resulted from soaring inflation, as even when household budgets are stretched, parents invariably prioritise spending on their kids. Moreover, children generally need new clothes more frequently than adults, partly because they are still gro...
