Report description:

Volume growth rates for men's and women's footwear in 2022 were substantially stronger than those recorded in 2021. Both categories saw demand pick up as more Hungarians returned to the office and started regularly socialising again in line with the continued easing of the pandemic. Indeed, many people considered updating their footwear to be a necessity after having not done so for almost two years while spending most of their time at home due to remote working and public health restrictions.
