Report description:

Ice cream is a hugely popular snack in Algerian, accounting for significant value sales and is in fact the most popular snack in Algeria, with volume sales supported by a hot climate. In 2022, ice cream is expected to register healthy retail volume growth, though volume growth will be a little lower than in 2021, as some spend switches to foodservice channels, due to society being fully opened up. All the same, despite the strong performance, high inflation is expected to dampen volume demand so...
