Report description:

Before the advent of COVID-19 in 2020, unpackaged ice cream was recording a great performance in both retail volume and value growths, also supported by new outlets capable of selling ice cream opening in several different regions of Tunisia. However, the pandemic seriously hampered unpackaged ice cream sales with retail value and volume growth becoming minimal and foodservice seeing a decline. Sales will continue to be restricted in 2022 as, although consumers are on-the-go much more than they...
