Report description:

Lodging remains in a difficult situation in 2022. Thanks to the government's COVID-19 support programmes and the rise in domestic tourism, the drop in the number of operators was not as high as expected. However, lodging suffers not only from reduced inbound tourism but also from staff shortages. Several workers quit or were laid off during the pandemic, and players are also grappling with pressures from wages and operating costs. Following two years of home-centred life, Czech consumers are kee...
