Report description:

Menswear in Hungary saw growth in total volume sales slow in 2022, with multiple categories recording poorer performances in this regard than they did the previous year. As was the case in womenswear, overall demand was constrained by heightened budget-consciousness as inflationary pressures arising from the global recovery from COVID-19, Russia's invasion of Ukraine and the depreciation of the forint caused unit prices to increase sharply and weakened purchasing power among Hungarians. Men's sh...
