Report description:

Sauce dips and condiments are stable in 2022, with current value sales rising, with growth boosted by sales of other sauces and condiments. Due to home seclusion and restricted socialising, Belgians were forced to cook at home during the outbreak of COVID-19, aiding current value and volume sales. However, once restrictions began to subside, lifestyles became busier, and the popularity of quick options, such as ready meals, increased. While this has dampened the demand for cooking ingredients, s...
