Report description:

Sauces, dips and condiments continue to post healthy retail volume growth in 2022 thanks to the recovery of tourism flows and the relaxation of COVID-19 restrictions. However, price rises are negatively impacting the category and curbing consumption to an extent. Manufacturers are experiencing higher costs in ingredients, production, packaging and logistics, causing unit prices to surge. Consumers are being forced to moderate consumption compared to 2021 due to the rising cost of living and are...
