Report description:

Demand for sauces, dips and condiments remained relatively stable throughout the pandemic, with strong and stable growth continuing to be seen in 2022 in both value and retail volume terms. Due to the relaxing of COVID-19 restrictions, more foodservice outlets are reopening in 2022, while others are returning to operating at full capacity. However, while this has boosted foodservice demand many people continue to follow more flexible work arrangements, which continues to support retail demand.
