Report description:

Herbs and spices remains an important category of sources, dips and condiments as these products are widely used in many Serbian households. Indeed, the majority of urban households in Serbian use herbs and spices on a daily basis. Pepper, oregano, primrose and cinnamon are among the most frequently used herbs and spices in the country and all are widely available in packaged format. However, significant numbers of Serbians never buy herbs and spices in packaged format, instead cultivating their...
