Report description:

Sportswear has been one of the most resistant categories within apparel and footwear throughout the pandemic, and in 2022, value sales fully recovered to 2019 levels. Although gyms in Germany suffered considerably when they were forced to close for extended periods during pandemic-related restrictions, physical trainers moved online, with lockdowns seeing Germans adopting home-based and online workouts. For this reason, the recovery of sportswear that began in 2021 across the category continued...
