Report description:

Air care growth was limited in 2022, as rising budget constraints due to inflation and increased cost of living meant consumers were more conscious of their spending. As such, focus was given to essential items within home care, with many Bulgaria consumers considering air care products to be non-essential for their everyday life. Therefore, although value growth was prevalent in air care, this was mainly due to increased unit prices, and volume consumption shrunk as consumers bought fewer air C...
