Report description:

The lifting of COVID-19-related control measures and the return of the Greek economy to something approaching pre-COVID normality underpinned positive growth in commercial charge cards during 2022. The category register positive growth in transactions volume and value terms over the course of the year, although this was not enough to return the category to pre-pandemic levels of activity. With business activity and spending gathering pace as the impact of the pandemic receded, transactions volum...
