Report description:

Charge cards continue to be a niche category in Saudi Arabia, facing all-time strong competition from debit and credit cards. As per the current trend, since most consumers are switching away from cash, there are quite a limited number of charge cards in circulation, with smaller value and volume transactions compared to debit and credit cards. The event of the COVID-19 pandemic did not even help to make charge cards more popular, as most of the services and facilities that charge cards had been...
