Report description:

Charge cards continues to decline in 2022, in terms of transaction value and volume, and also in the number of cards in circulation. Charge card usage is primarily associated with the commercial sector in the UK. Despite business operations and travel showing clear signs of recovery in 2022, companies are shifting away from using cards with charge function. Credit cards offering better loyalty programmes, reward schemes and more appealing partnerships with hotels, airlines and experiences contin...
