Report description:

Credit cards account for a significant proportion of transaction value in card payments in Colombia, though behind debit cards. However, debit cards are widening the gap year-on-year. In 2022, credit cards are expected to register further current value growth, though constant value is actually expected to fall, as high inflation cuts into profit margins. The number of cards in circulation is expected to increase, but not as much as for debit cards. Commercial credit cards are expected to see a h...
