Report description:

Following double-digit current value growth in transactions in 2021, credit cards maintains its strong performance in 2022 as local consumers rely on credit for everyday expenses. This is the result of several factors, but most pressing, is the weak economy combined with rising inflation - the latter mainly due to the war in Ukraine and resultant shortages in fuel and food. However, given rising interest rates implemented to control inflation - thereby raising the cost of credit - the growth of...
