Report description:

Debit cards dominates card payment transactions in Romania in terms of the number of cards in circulation, as well as transaction volume and current value. High accessibility drives this dominance, with debit cards easily available when a consumer opens any bank account. As a result, debit cards has benefited more than most categories from the ongoing trends driven and accelerated by the COVID-19 pandemic. For example, contactless payments, mobile payments and the transition from cash to card pa...
