Report description:

Debit card payments were temporarily slowed during the pandemic as the country's lockdown led to the closure of foodservice and almost all retail channels. However, upon reopening these venues, the category saw a quick recovery, especially since a growing number of outlets now offer a wider range of debit card payment options, including contactless and mobile wallet options. With COVID-19 no longer a threat, consumers are returning to travelling and their social lives. This is driving more frequ...
