Report description:

In 2022, debit card payment is once again the most popular payment method in the UK, with the volume and value of payments continuing to increase year-on-year. Consumers are increasingly substituting cash transactions with debit card payments, which tend to have a lower average transaction value. The shift to online purchases has also had a positive impact on the performance of debit, as well as the increasing prices of everyday essentials, such as groceries, due to rising inflation.

Euromonitor International's Debit Card Transactions in United Kingdom report establishes the size and structure of the market for ATMs cards, smart cards, credit cards, debit cards, charge cards, pre-paid cards and store cards. It looks at key players in the market (issuers and operators), number of cards in circulation, numbers transactions and value of transactions. It offers strategic analysis of sector forecasts and trends to watch.

Product coverage: Commercial Debit Card Transactions, Personal Debit Card Transactions.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
