Report description:

Financial cards and payments in Austria continue to be shaped by the shift from cash to card transactions in 2022, following the easing of restrictions in line with falling cases of COVID-19. This is leading to the greater resumption of socialising in addition to more normal shopping and travel habits. At the height of the pandemic, card payments, especially contactless smart card payments, experienced a major boost as a result of retailer recommendation and hygiene concerns among consumers. At...
