Report description:

Financial cards and payments performed well in Italy in 2022, underpinned the growing trend towards contactless payments. In addition to an increase in the number of consumers choosing to "tap and pay" with their contactless cards, payments made through mobile wallets also increased, as Italians became more educated as to the convenient nature of such transactions. Contactless payments also benefitted from lingering consumer concerns over safety and hygiene, a legacy of the COVID-19 pandemic. De...
