Report description:

Overall, the polishes category saw some recovery in 2022 as consumers were gaining confidence in economic conditions and starting to purchase non-essential home care products again. While polishes products are not a necessity, there is still a niche group of people who are purchasing polishes for occasions where they need to do some particularly extensive cleaning. For example, furniture and metal polish can work in some cleaning situations in which lower- to middle-income households are doing t...
