Report description:

While closed loop pre-paid cards is dominated by transportation cards, with demand set to recover and surpass pre-pandemic levels in 2022 in line with an easing of restrictions in South Korea, the smaller segment of merchant issued gift cards continues to gain share. Whilst social distancing restrictions at the height of the pandemic meant that consumers were unable to meet in person and present loved ones or friends with gifts, there has been an increasing trend for sending digital gift cards,...
