Report description:

Bulgarians largely prefer multi-purpose surface care, which offer time saving, as well as cost and space-saving. In 2022, mass consumers in Bulgaria had constrained budgets, with approximately 40% of the average consumer's income spent on food and beverages, with the rest being tightly distributed to other consumer goods and services. Multi-purpose cleaners have the benefit of combining several properties in one product, which is perceived as being highly convenient, allowing consumers to spend...
