Report description:

KEY FINDINGS

The Asia-Pacific white spirits market is set to project a CAGR of 6.01% during the forecast period, 2023-2032. The flourishing automotive sector and the rising construction activities majorly contribute to market growth. Also, several major players have established new plants in the region, given the absence of stringent regulations.

MARKET INSIGHTS

South Korea, China, India, Japan, Australia, and Rest of Asia-Pacific are analyzed for the Asia-Pacific white spirits market growth evaluation. In Japan, the automotive sector projects steady growth. Also, the presence of automotive giants like Nissan, Toyota, and Honda and the rising exports of automobiles raise the demand for paints & coatings. In addition, the marine industry growth has remained stable despite economic slowdowns. This is accredited to the exceptional high-tech designs and the country's efficiency.

With regard to ASEAN countries, the fast-paced growth of industrial paints & coatings, attributed to the increasing demands from the wood, electronics, marine, and automotive sectors, offers growth opportunities. The Philippines and Vietnam are becoming the new shipping hubs, benefiting from the growing costs of Chinese manufacturing operations. Also, the automotive sector is projecting fast-paced growth in these countries.
