Report description:

KEY FINDINGS

The Europe white spirits market is set to project a CAGR of 5.83% during the forecast period, 2023-2032. The market growth is propelled by fast-paced urbanization, shifting lifestyle trends, and growing disposable incomes.

MARKET INSIGHTS

The United Kingdom, Germany, Italy, France, Spain, and Rest of Europe are evaluated for the Europe white spirits market growth assessment. In Germany, the increasing public consumption drives the automotive industry growth, adding value to the paints & coatings market prospects. In addition, the rising demand for electric vehicles propels the analyzed market demands. Besides, the flourishing construction industry of Germany has raised the need for decorative and architectural paints & coatings, thereby offering growth opportunities. However, the market growth restraints include stringent regulations by REACH with regard to VOC emissions.

Spain is among the largest automobile and industrial vehicle manufacturers in Europe. A majority of the vehicles manufactured in Spain are exported to more than 100 countries. Whereas, the Rest of Europe segment growth is attributed to the thriving construction and automotive industries. Additionally, the demand for white spirits for decorative and painting purposes boosts market growth alongside rapid urbanization and a rising population.
