Report description:

Consumers showed strong interest in home care products needed for everyday cleaning and washing activities in 2022. Demand remained resilient, despite the waning threat and concerns surrounding COVID-19, which had provided a strong boost to category performance in 2020. However, fears of being infected by the illness have lingered and frequent cleaning was still in place in 2022. Many consumers have become more accustomed to paying extra attention to cleaning and keeping the threat of bacteria a...
