Report description:

Polishes witnessed stable volume growth in 2022, stimulated by the low maturity of this category in Georgia and steady demand. However, the return to pre-pandemic lifestyles has reduced the amount of time consumers spend at home. In tandem, Georgians have less time for cleaning and tend to purchase more generic home care products with polishes a less frequent option. Nevertheless, shoe polish remained the largest product area in terms of value sales, and benefitted from the return of normal life...
