Report description:

While polishes continued to register positive sales growth during 2022, growth rates remained moderate and overall sales remained relatively low as there are few opportunities for most Kenyan consumers to make use of polishes. One of the main reasons for such a moderate performance in the category during the year is the significant increase in the average unit price recorded in the category over the course of 2022, a trend which should be viewed within the context of the high inflation that subs...
