Report description:

Sauces, dips and condiments is expected to see a rebound in retail current value terms and a slower decline in retail volume terms in 2022, after witnessing sluggish sales in 2021. In the latter year, the category was unable to avoid a rebound after an unexpected spike in sales due to the pandemic in 2020, as home cooking and consumption naturally declined. However, value sales are set to increase again in 2022, as some consumers have returned to dining at home amidst surging prices in the foods...
