Report description:

In April 2020, the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) passed a circular requesting that people stop consuming smokeless tobacco products and spitting in public spaces. To further discourage people from this habit, in its directive for COVID-19 management, the Indian government highlighted that spitting in public spaces was a punishable offence, and the guilty would be fined, as spitting in public could contribute to the spread of COVID-19. Furthermore, state governments had additional pow...
