Report description:

While the belts and ties categories continued to recover in 2022 with the resumption of more normal lifestyles and the return to physical workplaces, sales still did not reach the levels seen immediately before the COVID-19 crisis. This is due in part to the generally more casual approach to office wear taken by many companies - which often does not require employees to wear ties or the kinds of formal trousers often worn with belts. It is also partly due to the fact that the adoption of hybrid...
