Report description:

Home insecticides is dependent on weather conditions in the country and therefore subject to seasonal demand. The summer of 2022 was quite hot, which contributed to retail volume sales in this category, although population growth is also providing underlying support to the category. Overall volume growth is in decline and limited by competition from pest control companies, to which Uzbekistanis are quite loyal. It is easy for consumers to contact these companies and order their services. They gu...
