Report description:

Cafes/bars registered healthy growth in value sales and also in terms of the opening of new establishments in 2022. This was in spite of difficult economic fundamentals. High inflation caused by in particular increased energy prices due to the war in Ukraine, as well as currency devaluation of the Egyptian pound, led to steep price rises. Despite this, demand was high. With fears about the pandemic having abated, Egyptians were eager to go out again. Continuing population growth also supported i...
