Report description:

People were extra cautious about going out due to the pandemic in 2020, which drove a massive sales decline in cafes/bars. Although some rebound was seen in 2021, some people remained hesitant to socialise, which limited the rate of recovery. 2022 marked the first year since 2019 in which most people were comfortable going out and meeting people, which benefited the performance of cafes/bars, and led to a switch in some sales from home delivery back to eat-in. It is very common to hang out at ca...
