Report description:

Rates of growth in total current value sales and transactions for consumer foodservice in Finland in 2022 were well up on 2021, with most categories showing significantly improved results in this regard. Trade across the market increased at a robust pace as the easing of the pandemic and the ending of most official mitigation measures encouraged more people to resume their normal routines. Following the government's decision to lift the national remote work recommendation early in the year, the...
