Report description:

Consumer foodservice saw recovery from COVID-19 era value declines in 2022, but also faced new challenges. High inflation continued to have a profound impact on the US economy throughout 2022, peaking at over 9% in June 2022. Inflation reached rates not seen for 40 years, and made nearly everything in the US substantially more expensive for consumers. Inflation on the prices of groceries was especially high, reaching levels over 13%, putting intense strain on the household budgets of millions of...
