Report description:

The pandemic forced full-service restaurants to devise creative solutions to retain some level of revenue during lockdowns, with the result being solutions such as Providoor. This is a service that allows consumers to order finish-at-home meals from full-service restaurants. Consumers receive the components of the meal which they can heat up and assemble at their own pace at home. It gives them the perfect opportunity to enjoy high-quality food without having to visit a restaurant where they may...
