Report description:

Quarantines and remote work have changed the nature of work. For many restaurant employees, especially in the US and Europe, the time in quarantine convinced them to change industries entirely, training to work remotely, whether in creative industries (graphic design, audiovisual production, etc) or technology industries (programming, remote customer service, etc). This generated demand for workers in Latin America, which meant that much of Colombia's skilled labour (baristas, cooks, chefs) found...
