Report description:

Full-service restaurants saw solid growth in 2022 as more consumers returned to dining out following the full relaxation of pandemic restrictions. The spring and summer period were particularly buoyant as consumers wanted to spend more time outside and enjoy dining out. The return of foreign tourists also provided growth momentum helping to improve restaurant capacity. The second half of 2022 dampened demand as the rising cost of living forced some consumers to reign in non-essential expenditure...
