Report description:

The severity of the COVID-19 pandemic eased in 2022, which led consumers' daily lives to return to a normal pattern. This helped increase the usage occasions for laundry care products, and allowed the category to attract increased consumer demand. For instance, the return to offices, or at least hybrid working, increased mobility, and physical learning in schools and colleges recommenced, which increased the need to wash clothes more frequently, fuelling the overall growth of the category.
