Report description:

Limited-service restaurants registered healthy growth in value sales and also in terms of the opening of new establishments in 2022, and also remained the largest segment within consumer foodservice. This was in spite of difficult economic fundamentals. High inflation caused by in particular increased energy prices due to the war in Ukraine, as well as currency devaluation of the Egyptian pound, led to steep price rises. Despite this, demand for eating out was high. With fears about the pandemic...
