Report description:

Nissin's main area of business in staple foods continues to be noodles, in which it is the number two player globally, and the leader in instant noodle cups. However, it is also a top three player in breakfast cereals in its domestic market of Japan. The company strategy of developing "Beyond Instant Foods", which will see launches like the recent Kanzen Meal, claimed to be a "complete nutrition meal", is slated to help it continue growing against a backdrop of a mature noodles market in Japan.
